

June 25th 2021 | GO TO LIVE STREAMING

Space Research Aimed at Environmental Monitoring

Host: Lorenzo Pinna, journalist and science communicator

14.30 - Opening Speeches

Ilaria Restifo, EDF's contact person for Italy and creator of the event, will introduce the topic and the objectives of the web conference

Dagmar Droogsma, European Strategy & Engagement Environmental Defense Fund Europe

Monica Tommasi, Amici della Terra Onlus

15.00 - Panelists

The EU space policy

Salvatore Pignataro, Space Attaché Italian Delegation in Brussels

The role of ESA in environmental monitoring

Simonetta Cheli, Head of Strategy Programme & Coordination Office, Directorate of Earth Observation Programmes - ESA

The EU Copernicus programme

Mauro Facchini, Head of Earth Observation Unit, DG Defence Industry and Space, European Commission

Three insights on methane emissions using Copernicus data

Christian Lelong, Director Natural Resources, Kayros

MethaneSAT - a unique satellite on a unique climate mission

Steven Hamburg, MethaneSAT Project Co-lead Chief Scientist, EDF

16.15 - The Italian Experience

EO-based environmental monitoring services at national and local levels

Andrea Taramelli, Coordinator of the National Copernicus User Forum

The ASI contribution to the monitoring of GHGs from space

Francesco Longo, Head of Earth Observation Division, Agenzia Spaziale Italiana

Value what you can measure: Analytics from Space and Global Changes

Giovanni Sylos Labini, CEO Planetek Italia

EVENT LANGUAGE: ENGLISH - EVENT PAGE FOR INFO AND UPDATES